Janmashtami celebrations (04/9/18)

On 4th September 2018, Janmashtami celebrations were carried out in the college campus with full pomp and show. The students decorated the college with colourful 'Patakas'. The 'Matkis' were beautifully decorated with garland of 'Galgota' (Marigold) flowers and held high up on the ropes tied across the 2 parapet walls of the college. They were filled up 'Chaas' (Buttermilk).

The students had even decorated the cradle of little 'Kanha'. Meanwhile the idol of Kanha was lifted up on the head by the students. As soon as they entered the college, there was a floral shower and gulal was thrown, alongside the music of Dhol and Tasha was played to welcome the Lord Krishna and to bless us to get rid of all negativities in life!!!!!!! Kanha was then placed in the cradle and the auspicious 'Aarti' was performed by the principal, staff and students. Everyone waited for their turn to rock the cradle and the Prasad of 'Panjiri' was distributed to all. The atmosphere was filled with, "Nand Gher Anand Bhayo" and "Hathi Ghoda Palkhi Jay Kanhaiya Lal Ki".

The Govinda teams of every Semester were eager for the 'Matki Phod' Competition. The students towered up for 2-3 times and then finally broke the Matki. This year's attraction was all about the Girls' Govinda team. The Girls managed to break the Matki triumphantly with all vigour surprising all of us Why Should Boys have all the fun?.
