On 5th February night we started a journey of Himachal tour from Umrakh college by train. By covering the distance of 1638 km by train and bus we reached first to Kasol at morning 8.00 am on 7th February. Kasol is situated in Parvati Valley, on the banks of the Parvati River, between Bhuntar and Manikaran. After reached on camp in kasol we took a breakfast and given brief information to students regarding visit a Kasol city and local sightseen. After took a lunch we visited Manikarna temple and Kasol city and return back to our tent for night stay. On 8th February we started tracking early in a morning and reached to our destination Grahani at afternoon. We took a rest over there for 2 hr and in evening we visited Grahani village. On the next day 9th February morning we went for river rafting at Kullu in afternoon and in group wise we done river rafting adventure in a Beas River. From there in evening, we leave for Manali and at night 8.00 pm we reached at Sarthak resort Manali.

On the next day 10th February, we visited lovely Solang valley, the best place to see the effect of snow bring to this serene. It is also a hotspot for paragliding. Hiking, ziplining and zorbing, the valley doubles as snowy resorts in winter. For adventure enthusiasts, skiing in Manali takes us on an experience of a lifetime in the most popular tourist destination in India. Manali is easily deserving of many titles that it has earned. In which, Manali is home for many places like Hadimba temple, Munu temple, Himalayan national park and Rohtang pass that we visited on 11th February. At night we leaved for Amritsar, Punjab and in morning 12th February we reached Amritsar in morning 10 am. We took a breakfast in hotel and took a rest for 2 hr, after took a lunch we went for Attari-wagah border in afternoon. The border is located 24 km form Lahore and 32 km from Amritsar. The Beating Retreat Ceremony starts at 4.15 pm and we seen that ceremony and leave border at 6.30 pm. We reached at hotel at 7.30 pm and took a dinner. On the next day 13th February, we visited Amritsar golden temple and Jallianwala Baugh and also all students done a shopping at famous market near to golden temple. After shopping we reached again at hotel and took our bags and left for railway station of Amritsar. At around 6.55 pm our train left for Surat and we reached Surat city on next day 4th February around at 10.00 pm.

We are highly thankful to the management of Shree Naranjibhai Lalbhai Patel College of Pharmacy, Umrakh for granting permission and to Dr. Ketan V. Shah, Principal of Shree Naranjibhai Lalbhai Patel College of Pharmacy, Umrakh for extending help and support to conduct this tour successfully.
