A Report on "Mera Pehla Vote – Desh Ke Liye" Activities

Date: March 2nd, 4th, 5th & 6th, 2024

Location: Shree Naranjibhai Lalbhai Patel College of Pharmacy, Umrakh

Introduction:

Under the guidance of Dr. Ketan V. Shah and program coordinator Mr. Bhumin K. Pathak, Shree Naranjibhai Lalbhai Patel College of Pharmacy, Umrakh, organized a series of engaging activities under the banner of "Mera Pehla Vote – Desh Ke Liye" from March 2nd to March 6th, 2024. The initiative aimed to promote voter awareness and responsibility among the students and faculty members of the college.

Activities:

March 2nd - Download Voter Helpline App:

On the first day of the event, students were encouraged to download the Voter Helpline App, which serves as a comprehensive platform providing essential information related to elections. The app facilitates various services, including voter registration, locating polling stations, electoral roll search, and much more. This activity aimed to familiarize the participants with the digital tools available for ensuring their active participation in the electoral process.

March 4th - Voter's Pledge Administration:

The second day witnessed the administration of the Voter's Pledge. Students and faculty members took a solemn oath to uphold the principles of democracy and exercise their voting rights responsibly. The pledge emphasized the significance of every vote in shaping the future of the nation and reaffirmed the commitment towards the democratic process.

March 5th - Special Screening of AV Content:

On the third day, a special screening of audiovisual content related to the importance of voting and civic engagement was organized. The screening included documentaries, short films, and informative videos highlighting the electoral process, the power of democracy, and the role of youth in nation-building. The session aimed to inspire and educate the audience about the significance of their participation in the electoral process.

March 6th - Selfie Point:

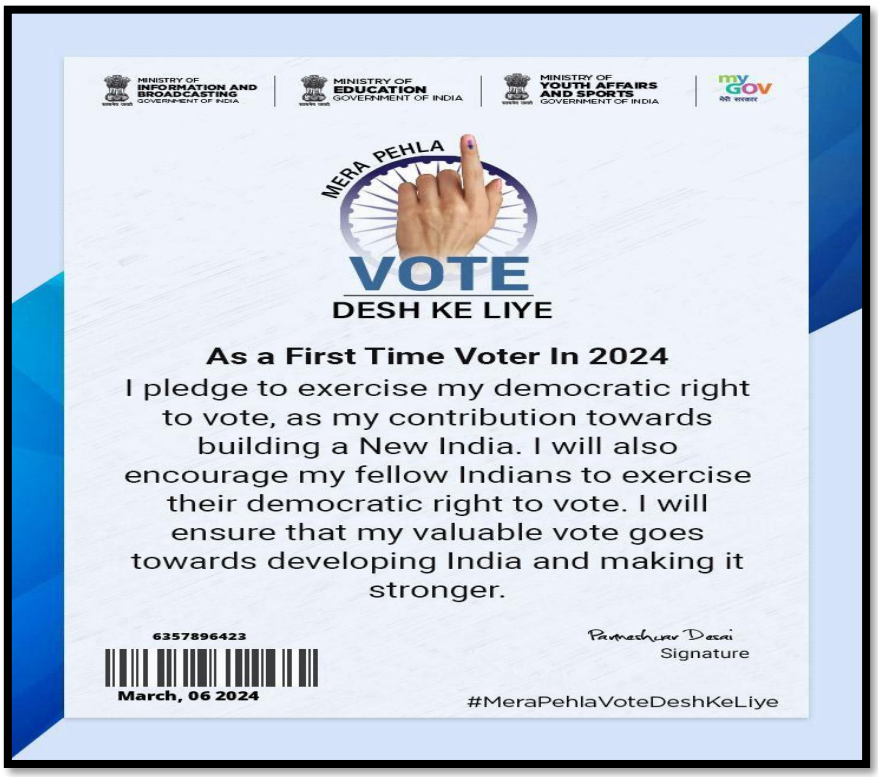

The final day of the event featured a selfie point, where participants could capture moments of their engagement with the "Mera Pehla Vote – Desh Ke Liye" initiative. Students and faculty members were encouraged to take selfies with banners, posters, and props carrying messages promoting voter awareness and responsibility. The selfie point served as a fun and interactive way to commemorate their involvement in the campaign and spread the message further through social media platforms.

Conclusion:

The "Mera Pehla Vote – Desh Ke Liye" initiative organized by Shree Naranjibhai Lalbhai Patel College of Pharmacy, Umrakh, under the guidance of Dr. Ketan V. Shah and program coordinator Mr. Bhumin K. Pathak, successfully engaged students and faculty members in various activities aimed at promoting voter awareness and responsibility.
