Ganpati Aagman (VBT KA RAJA)

Date: 6th September 2024

Time: 2:00 pm

On 6th September 2024, Vidyabharti Trust, Umrakh, held a vibrant Ganpati Aagman event, known as Aagman of VBT Ka Raja, the arrival of Lord Ganesha on campus. In event, enthusiastic participation from over 1000 students and 200 faculty members, making it a memorable and joyous occasion for everyone.

Procession and Route

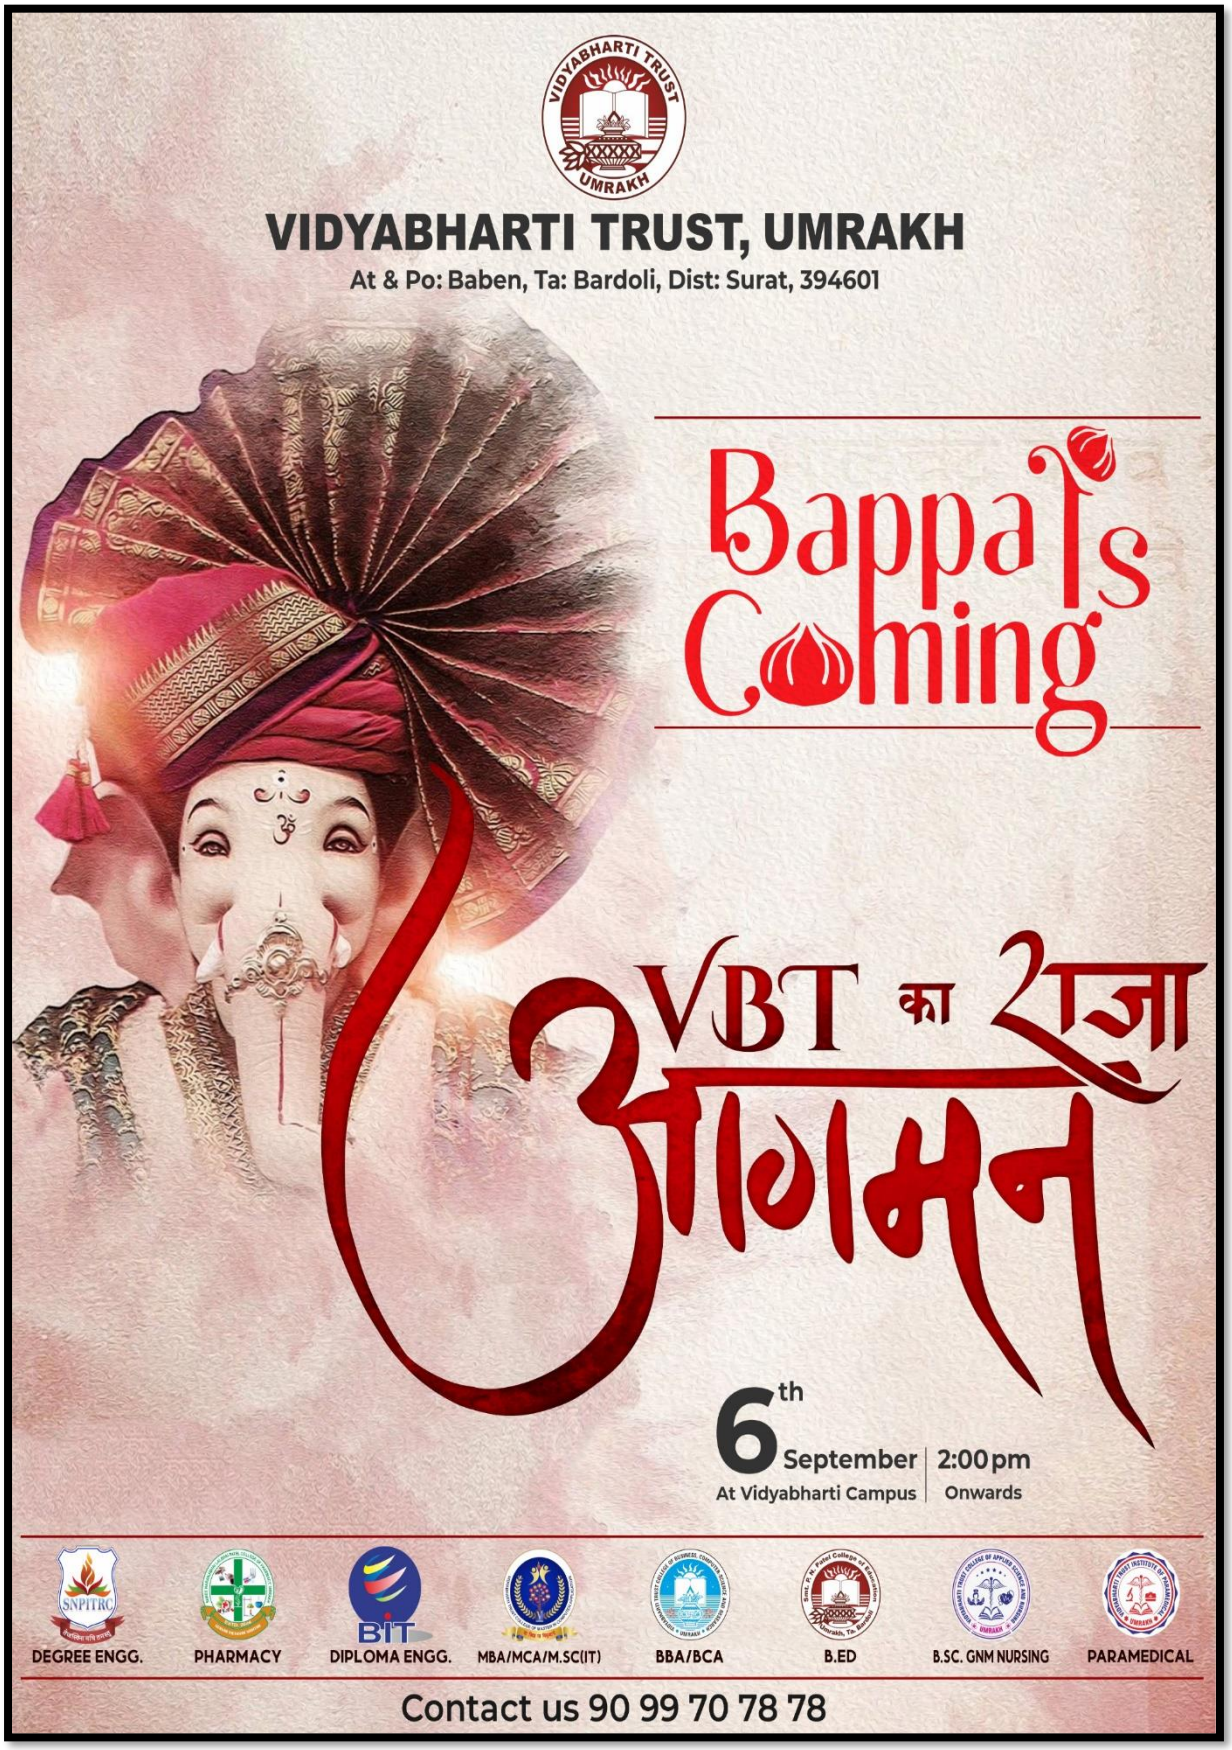

The procession began from Shree Naranjibhai Lalbhai Patel College of Pharmacy, Umrakh, and passed through several key points on the campus. The route included the Diploma Engineering College, BBA-BCA College, MBA-MCA College, Degree Engineering College, the Girls' Hostel, and Texas Hospital. After this festive journey, Lord Ganesha's idol finally arrived at the mandap, where all the rituals were taking place.

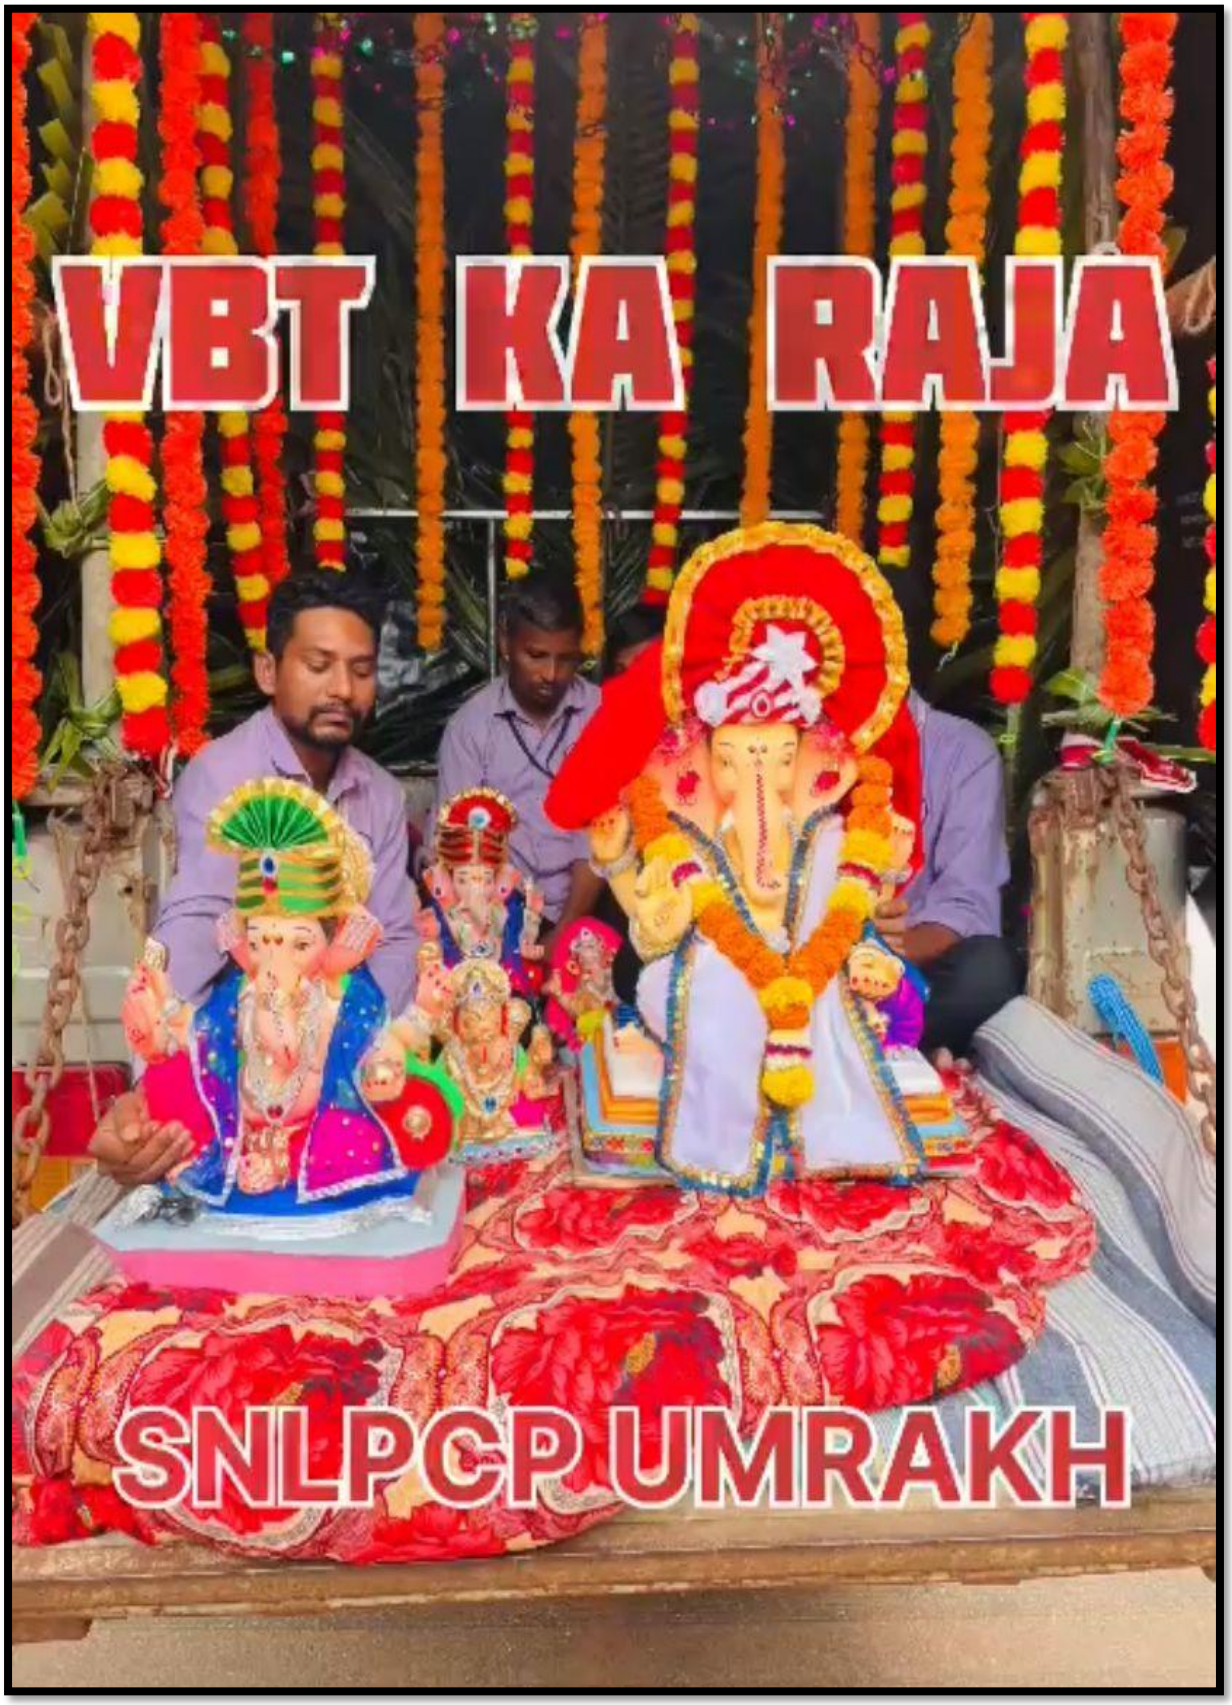

Mandap and Decoration

The mandap, where Lord Ganesha was placed, decorated with beautiful and colorful designs. The vibrant decorations created an exciting and spiritual atmosphere, reflecting the hard work and creativity of the organizing team.

Arrival and Rituals

Once Lord Ganesha’s idol reached the mandap, the atmosphere was filled with excitement and devotion. The idol was placed on a beautifully decorated altar, and traditional rituals were performed with great care. The puja (worship) started with Vedic chants and offerings of flowers, fruits, and modaks (a special sweet) to Lord Ganesha, and participation of many students and staff in the aarti and other rituals reflected the shared joy and reverence for Lord Ganesha.

Ganpati Aarti (VBT KA RAJA)

Date: 9th September 2024

Time: 4:00 pm

On 9th September 2024, Shree Naranjibhai Lalbhai Patel College of Pharmacy, Umrakh, organized a heartfelt Ganesh Aarti as part of the ongoing celebrations for Ganpati Aagman. Students and faculty members came together in large numbers to participate in this spiritual event, making it a memorable occasion filled with devotion and unity.

Beginning of the Aarti

The aarti began with the chanting of Vedic mantras, creating a serene and sacred atmosphere. The air was filled with the fragrance of incense and flowers as offerings were made to Lord Ganesha. Participants placed flowers, fruits, and modaks—a sweet delicacy loved by Lord Ganesha—as part of the traditional ritual to seek blessings.

Offerings and Prasad

In addition to the offerings, different types of prasad (blessed food) were presented to Lord Ganesha, symbolizing gratitude and reverence. The offerings included various sweets, fruits, and other items prepared with devotion. These were later distributed among the participants, spreading the joy and blessings of the occasion.

Participation and Atmosphere

The aarti was a collective effort, with both students and faculty actively involved in every part of the ritual. The unity and devotion shown by everyone created an uplifting and spiritually charged environment.

Ganpati Visarjan (VBT KA RAJA)

Date: 13th September 2024

Time: 1:30 pm

On 13th September 2024, Vidyabharti Trust, Umrakh, organized the Ganpati Visarjan event, also known as VBT Ka Raja, marking the conclusion of the Ganesh Chaturthi celebrations. The event began at 1:30 PM, with around 850 students and over 150 faculty members gathering to bid farewell to Lord Ganesha.

Procession and Route

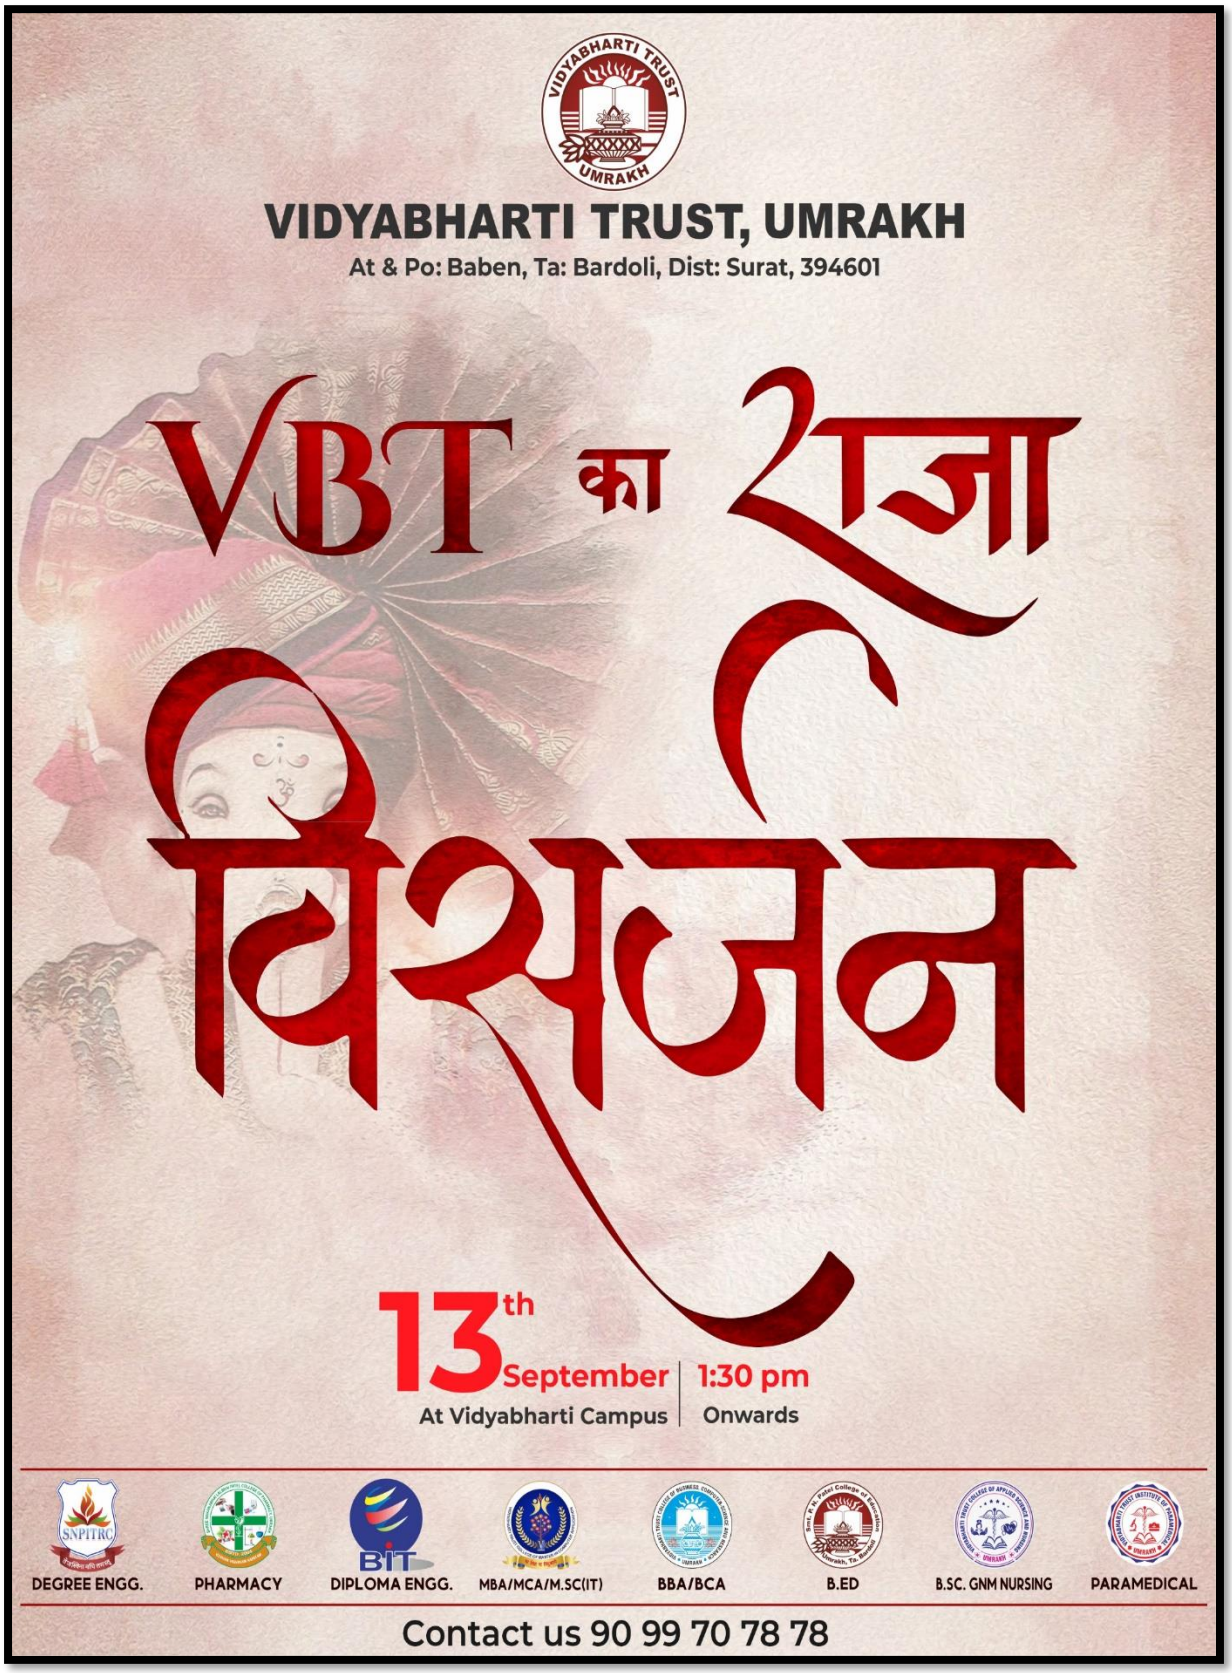

The Visarjan procession started from the mandap where Lord Ganesha's idol had been placed throughout the festival. The route passed through the Degree Engineering College, Shree Naranjibhai Lalbhai Patel College of Pharmacy, BBA-BCA College, MBA-MCA College, and ended at the Diploma Engineering College.

Joyful Participation

The entire Vidyabharti Trust community participated in the procession with great enthusiasm. Students and faculty members came together, dancing joyfully and singing hymns to honor and bid farewell to Lord Ganesha. The atmosphere was filled with devotion and excitement, as everyone expressed their gratitude for the blessings received during the festival.

Visarjan Ceremony

The Visarjan ceremony, symbolizing the return of Lord Ganesha to his celestial abode, was conducted with respect and devotion. As the idol was taken for immersion, students and faculty offered aarti and chanted farewell hymns. The ritual reminded everyone of the cycle of creation and dissolution, and the belief that Lord Ganesha will return next year to bless the community once again.
