Report on Essay Competition "Veer Bal Diwas: A Tribute to Sahibzada Baba Zorawar Singh and Baba Fateh Singh"

Date: 23rd December 2024

Shree Naranjibhai Lalbhai Patel College of Pharmacy, Umrakh organized an Essay Competition on 23rd December 2024 to commemorate Veer Bal Diwas: A Tribute to Sahibzada Baba Zorawar Singh and Baba Fateh Singh. This event aimed to honor the unparalleled bravery and sacrifices of these young martyrs and instill a sense of patriotism and moral values among the students.

A total of 30 students enthusiastically participated in the competition, showcasing their writing skills and expressing their heartfelt tributes to Sahibzada Baba Zorawar Singh and Baba Fateh Singh. The competition was judged by Dr. Ankur S. Joshi, a distinguished professor from the B.Ed College.

After meticulous evaluation of the essays, the winners were announced as follows:

First Rank: Urvi H. Ahir

Second Rank: Mahi P. Mujadia

Third Rank (Tie): Maitri V. Patel and Janvi N. Ishi

The event was successfully coordinated by Mr. Bhumin Pathak, with commendable assistance from student volunteers Krishna Jadav and Shrusti Patel, who ensured smooth execution and active participation from all the students. The competition provided a platform for students to research deeper into the sacrifices of the Sahibzadas and express their thoughts fluently.

The certificates for the event were designed by Dr. Hemal Bhuva, whose creative efforts added a professional touch to the recognition of the participants and winners.

The principal of the college, Dr. Ketan Shah, expressed his heartfelt appreciation for the participants, the organizers, and the judge, emphasizing the importance of remembering and honoring the sacrifices of Sahibzada Baba Zorawar Singh and Baba Fateh Singh. His guidance and encouragement greatly contributed to the success of the event.

The college remains committed to organizing such events to promote awareness and appreciation for the rich history and culture of our nation.
