"Janmashtami: The Celebration of Lord Krishna's Birth"

Date: 14th August, 2025

Janmashtami, also known as Krishna Janmashtami or Gokulashtami, is among the most grandly observed festivals in India, commemorating the birth of Lord Krishna, the eighth incarnation of Lord Vishnu. The tale of Krishna's birth signifies the triumph of virtue over vice, brightness over darkness, and righteousness (dharma) over unrighteousness (adharma). Apart from its spiritual value, Janmashtami is firmly embedded in Indian tradition and is observed with great zeal throughout the nation. Each region showcases its own distinctive customs, ranging from chanting Krishna's names and enacting Ras Leela to the spirited Dahi Handi celebrations and ornate temple adornments. The festival spreads happiness, festivity, and social unity, bringing people together in devotion and merriment.

This year, our college inaugurated the Janmashtami celebration with a melodious session of bhajans dedicated to Lord Krishna from 10.00 am to 12.00 pm. These devotional hymns, filled with spiritual depth, created a calm and reverent ambiance for the occasion, drawing students and faculty into a collective expression of faith and delight. After the bhajans, our students portrayed Radha, Krishna, and Vasudev, while an artistic decoration themed on "Kansa Karagruha" (Kansa's prison) served as a major highlight, enriching the overall spirit of the festival. The celebration then proceeded with the aarti, performed at 12.30 pm by the principal, staff, and students. Following this, prasad, including the traditional sweet panjari, was distributed to all. The program continued with the much-awaited Matki Phod at 1.15 pm, where boys and girls from various semesters and divisions enthusiastically participated. This spirited and interactive tradition symbolized Krishna's mischievous charm and the communal bond of the festival.

The environment resonated with the cheerful chants of "Nand Gher Anand Bhayo Jay Kanhaiya Lal Ki" and "Hathi Ghoda Palkhi Jay Kanhaiya Lal Ki." The festivities concluded with a lively DJ Garba, where everyone danced with vigor and joy. The pulsating rhythms and colorful atmosphere provided a delightful and festive conclusion to our Janmashtami celebrations, leaving lasting smiles and treasured memories for all.
